

The Ethical Services™ Provider Code of Ethics

As an Ethical Services™ Provider I recognize my professional and personal obligations to my Clients, to my company employees, and to my industry. I recognize that through my commitment to a high-level of ethical and professional standards, I not only better my industry, but everyone who comes into contact with my company.

Therefore, as an Ethical Services™ Provider, I pledge to support and uphold the Ethical Services™ exemplary standards and principles of professional conduct as presented below in the Provider Code of Ethics.

Initial Ethical Services “Provider Code Of Ethics”
Below

- _____ I will perform my services in accordance with the laws of the city and state that I operate in.
- _____ I will protect Client interests by providing valuable consumer information they need in making wise service decisions.
- _____ I will perform my services according to accepted industry standards
- _____ I will not misrepresent services to a Client and insist that additional services must be purchased for an extra cost once a firm quote has already been presented and accepted by both parties.
- _____ I will not utilize “Bait-and Switch” business practices of advertising low-price offers that I have no intention of honoring.
- _____ I will not exercise commission-only hiring practices which compels employees to exercise unethical hard-sell tactics solely for the purpose of creating a livable wage for themselves at the expense of Clients’ true service needs.
- _____ I will not misrepresent facts about warranties or quality of service.
- _____ I will strongly guarantee my work.
- _____ I will be ethical and honest in all of my business and professional relationships.

If found by Ethical Services™ to have knowingly violated this Code of Ethics I will risk expulsion from Ethical Services™. Documented complaints that are not resolved in a professional manner will be posted on the site as an informational resource for Consumers.
